TAKE UP THE CHALLENGE

The 2011 Taekwon-Do World Championships are to be held in Wellington, New Zealand. We are proud to have this opportunity, and invite you to join us as we showcase our nation and rich culture to the world.

Known as Aotearoa (Land of the Long White Cloud) in Maori, New Zealand is a land of spectacular natural beauty, with a diverse range of must-see locations and activities to suit a wide range of interests.

So come, take up the challenge.

For more information, or to express interest in attending the 2011 World Championships in New Zealand please email the organiser: 2011worldsorganiser@itfnz.org.nz or visit www.itfnz.org.nz

The haka is a traditional Maori challenge.

WELLINGTON – NEW ZEALAND'S EVENTS CAPITAL AND THE PERFECT PLACE TO HOST

THE 2011 TAEKWON-DO WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS.

WELCOME TO WELLINGTON

Sandwiched between tree-clad hills and a sparkling harbour, the boutique city stretches just two kilometers in diameter. Its spectacular setting is matched by a vibrant energy barely contained in the compact city streets.

Culture and nightlife help to make Wellington the undisputed party centre of the nation. Wall to wall restaurants, bars and cafes and packed out theatres and cultural venues combine to create an unrivalled energy and vibe.

The wine trails of Martinborough, the rugged Wairarapa Coast and the majestic Marlborough Sounds are all within easy access of Wellington. Within five hours drive is a stunning array of beautiful lakes, rivers, mountains, sounds and volcanic scenery.
